

PACIFIC CONTROLS

Mr. Dilip Rahulan is consistently recognized by Forbes ME as part of the 'Top Indian Business Leaders in the Arab World' from 2013 - 2016

He is the founder and Executive Chairman & CEO of UAE headquartered Pacific Controls, partnering with leading product OEMs, carriers, service providers, governments and diversified enterprises to help fully leverage smart connected devices, machines and the internet of things and people. He has positioned Pacific Controls as a global leader in delivering managed energy services on the cloud, has established the world's first Global Command Control Center for energy and managed engineering services, the visionary behind "Pacific Control's Galaxy" the enterprise level Managed Services delivery platform and the revolutionary "Gbots", which are intelligent, autonomous, experienced and cognitive software robots, deployed across networks to deliver diverse tasks in assets across the world.

The establishment of one of Middle East's largest Data Center Campus in Dubai, under the banner of Pacific Controls Cloud Services is one of his major achievements, positioning his company as a pioneer in the global business virtualization space.

2015

2014

2013